Edith Garcia featured in McKnight exhibition

New works by Edith Garcia (B.F.A. '98) are featured in "Six McKnight Artists," an exhibition opening Sept. 22 at the Northern Clay Center in Minneapolis.

Garcia, who is based in London, will show cast and hand-built silicone and stoneware works from The Displaced Series, which she created during her 2005-06 McKnight Artist Residency for Ceramic Artists at NCC. Click here to see more of Garcia's work.

Edith Garcia, Fearless (2006). Slip cast silicone and stoneware.

"Six McKnight Artists" also features works by Maren Kloppmann, a Minneapolis artist who has mentored M.F.A. students at the College, along with Audrius Janusonis, Paul McMullen, Anita Powell and Tetsuya Yamada. Kloppmann and Yamada received the 2005-06 McKnight Artist Fellowships for Ceramic Artists.

A public artists' reception will be held from 6-8 p.m. on Sept. 22 at the NCC, which is located at 2424 Franklin Avenue East. The exhibit runs through Oct. 29. Click here for more information.
